Sub: Invitation to present Research Papers and participation in XXXVII Indian Social Science Congress, Dec 27-2013, Aligarh.

Dear Colleagues,

We most cordially invite you and your colleagues including your young research students to the forthcoming 37th session of Indian Social Science Congress between December 27-31, 2013 at Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh. You all are most welcome to present a research paper at it and take part in its deliberations.

'Building an Ecologically Sustainable Society' is the focal theme of XXXVII Indian Social Science Congress. All its details are given in this publication for your perusal and circulation among your colleagues.

We all know that continuous destruction of ecology through our deforestation, mining, chemicalisation of agriculture and industries, nuclearisation etc has endangered our very existence. How to overcome it, therefore is a serious question posed to all our scientists. How to create a new social system rooted in the principles of 'need' and 'ecology' is a clarion call from the Indian Academy of Social Sciences and Aligarh Muslim University. We invite you all to join us in collective thinking at XXXVII Indian Social Science Congress.

Since almost all branches of science are represented through 19 Research Committee, 21 Thematic Panels and numerous interdisciplinary seminars/symposia/colloquia/workshops. You are free to present a research paper on the theme on which you had been working. Your paper need not be related to the focal theme.

We look forward for a creative and stimulating meeting with you at the XXXVII Indian Social Science Congress.

With regards

Yours sincerely,

(P.S. Ramakrishnan)
President
