XXXVIII Indian Social Science Congress
(December 27-31 Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University, Vidya Vihar, Lucknow - 226025, Uttar Pradesh)

Focal Theme

'Knowledge Systems, Scientific Temper And The People'

To,

All Vice-Chancellors / Directors / Principals / ISSA members / Non members

Subject: Invitation to present Research Papers and participation in XXXVIII Indian Social Science Congress, December 27-31, 2014 at Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University, Vidya Vihar, Lucknow – 226025, Uttar Pradesh

Dear Colleagues,

We most cordially invite you and your colleagues including your young research scholars to the forthcoming 38th session of Indian Social Science Congress during December 27-31, 2014 at Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar (Central) University, Vidya Vihar, Lucknow – 226025, Uttar Pradesh. You all are most welcome to present research papers at it and take part in its deliberations.

'Knowledge Systems, Scientific Temper and the People' is the focal theme of XXXVIII Indian Social Science Congress.

All details of XXXVIII Indian Social Science Congress are given in this publication for your perusal and circulation among colleagues.

We all know that continuous destruction of Ecology through deforestation, mining, chemicalization of agriculture, industries and nuclearization has endangered our very existence. How to overcome it, therefore is a serious question posed to all our scientists. How to create a new social system rooted in the 'Knowledge Systems, Scientific Temper and The People's attitude towards life and work' is a clarion call from the Indian Academy of Social Sciences and Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar (Central) University, Vidya Vihar, Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh. We invite you all to join us in order to initiate a sense of scientific thinking and technological competitive competence in the wake of cut-throat market driven world at XXXVIII Indian Social Science Congress.

Since almost all branches of science are represented through 20 research committees, 21 thematic panels and numerous interdisciplinary seminars / symposia / colloquia / workshops. You are free to present a research paper(s) on the theme on which you are working. Your paper need not to be related to the focal theme.

---We lookforward to a creative and stimulating meeting with you at the XXXVIII Indian Social Science Congress at Lucknow.
