

A TIME TO THINK

"Believe Nothing, merely because you have been told it, Or because, it is Traditional or because you yourselves have imagined it. Do not believe what your teacher tells you merely out of respect for your teacher. But whatever, after a due consideration and analysis, if you find it to be good, if it is conducive to the benefit, the welfare of all beings, that doctrine, believe and cling to it and take it as your guide"

-The Buddha

Bharatiya Samajik Chintan

The Bharatiya Chintan is quarterly research Journal of Indian Academy of Social Sciences. It aims at promoting the cause of social science teaching and research in India through concrete analysis of contemporary Indian social reality in its historical perspective. Articles dealing with any aspect of Indian social reality with inter-disciplinary bias will receive priority for publication. The papers/articles will be selected on merit for publication. However, only such articles which attempt to make some theoretical methodological contribution / or which have immediate applied value will be published in this journal.

The paper neatly typed in double space on A-4 size paper with 1" margin on both sides should be sent in duplicate to the Editor. Each paper must be accompanied by a short abstract, not exceeding two hundred words. Xerox copies of papers are not accepted. Those who would like to send floppies are requested to compose the paper in 7.0 Page Maker or WORD. Any paper accepted for publication in the Bharatiya Samajik Chintan will be its property and the author(s) will be required to obtain prior permission to reprint the same elsewhere.
